Update on the BC Transfer Guide

(as published in BCCAT ENGAGE ((September 2021)): Moving forward)

Look out for a bigger, better BC Transfer Guide! The site has been redesigned to improve user experience, making it more responsive, accessible, and adaptive. Countdown to launch: 10, 9, 8...

In the meantime... we invite you to check out the new Adult Basic Education (ABE) Transfer Search! Previously, ABE course articulations were provided as annually published PDFs. This new fully searchable database makes it much easier for students to explore and plan.

Work is also underway to create a transfer search facility for English as an Additional Language (EAL) course articulations. We expect that the EAL Transfer Search will be up and running shortly.

Welcome Home OC

Students were welcomed back to campus on September 7 in all four regions with orientation activities and events designed to help students make connections and learn about their campus and program.

Salmon Arm

Salmon Arm students registered in advance for a time to come to campus. Once on campus, students were treated to a free lunch, had a chance to meet professors and other students, received a welcome bag full of goodies, and had chances to win prizes, including a beverage fridge. Each portfolio and campus service department had a table set up for students to ask questions.

Vernon

Students visited the campus in two groups of 100 and were welcomed with a grab bag full of campus information, a chance to win an iPad or mini fridge, and goodies. Some of the bags had mystery prize tickets randomly dropped into them.

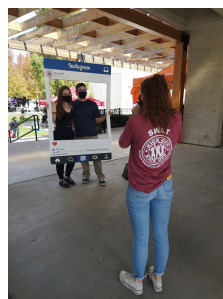

New students were encouraged to visit the various program tables and chat with professors, campus support staff, admin staff and some of the second-year students. Each table had treats and an opportunity to play a game for more prize ticket entries. Students also had a chance to visit the photo booth and leave with an instant photo strip to document their first day at OC.

Kelowna

Kelowna students were divided by portfolio to come to campus, pick up a welcome bag, visit College service and community tables, enjoy a free lunch from a food truck and listen to a live DJ who handed out prizes all day long. At the end of this they were sent off to their program-specific orientation sessions delivered by staff and professors.

Other events taking place during the first few weeks included an outdoor movie night, first day coffee and pastries station, and a services fair with free gelato, lunch and more prizes.

Penticton

Students at the Penticton campus registered for one of two time slots. During their time slot they were treated to lunch, a welcome bag full of goodies, and had a chance to meet and greet staff, instructors, and their peers while listening to a live DJ.

At the end of the first week, students were also invited to the beach for a fun day on the water.
