

CULINARY CO-OP

The Program

Okanagan College's Culinary Co-op teaches students the applied knowledge to become a professional in a wide array of culinary arts related industries.

Okanagan College is accredited through Canadian Association for Co-operative Education (CAFCE) and the Accountability Council for Co-operative Education (ACCE). Co-op department staff are registered with CAFCE.

Opportunities

Combining hands-on technical skills with culinary theory, students are ready to work in a variety of co-op settings including restaurants, wineries, ski hills, resorts and other hospitality industry settings. This is an experiential program with emphasis on food preparation and presentation as well as basic service techniques. Located at the Kelowna campus kitchens and Infusions Restaurant the program mirrors a realistic training environment within the expected industry time-frame.

Benefits to Employers

- An opportunity to evaluate employees without an obligation to permanent employment.
- A proven cost-effective method of meeting human resource needs.
- Access to a pool of motivated, temporary employees for special projects, peak periods, vacation relief and coverage without costly advertising.

Co-op students are available: May–Jul., June–Sep., Jul.–Oct. and Sep.–Nov.
