The Rowdy Men weren't really rowdy at all, just having a lot of fun as the Celtic group played to a full house at the Minstrel Cafe last Saturday.

Rowdy Men pack the Minstrel

It was slightly quieter last week, with a lot of events on hold until we get through the Olympics, but the Minstrel Café was still packed Saturday as the Rowdy Men brought their special gift of Celtic music to the stage.

Maybe it was the new sound system they've put in at the Minstrel, or maybe it was just the food and wine putting people in a good mood, but it was the kind of warm and fuzzy night that left everyone feeling good.

One of my favourite performers, harmonica virtuoso Carlos del Junco, will return to the Minstrel on Mar. 25 and tickets are now on sale. You can expect this one to sell out so if you're a fan, act quickly. They've also got El Mariachi coming on Mar. 10, which should be a lot of fun.

Check out the website at minstrelcafe.com for a full list that includes Robert Fine tonight.
