

Coyotes get split on island

CapNews
Apr 20

For the second weekend in a row, the Okanagan College Coyotes earned a split in Canadian College Baseball Conference action.

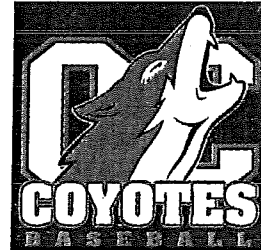

In Nanaimo, the Coyotes picked up a pair of wins in four tries against the Vancouver Island Baseball Institute Mariners.

On Saturday, OC opened with a 7-2 victory. Cole Parussini (2-0) tossed a complete game four hitter for his second win of the spring.

Trevor Lofstrom hit a three-run home run, his second of the season, while David Todosichuk chipped in with two RBIs.

In Game 2, the Mariners prevailed 5-3. Jared Dulaba had two RBIs for OC in the loss.

On Sunday, Brandon

Becking (2-2) tossed a four-hitter over seven innings as the 'Yotes beat VIBI 13-3. Braden Heyland had three hits and three RBIs, while Dulaba had two hits and a pair of RBIs.

The Coyotes (8-8) are in a three way tie for second in the CCBC with both Thompson Rivers and VIBI.

OC, TRU and the Mariners will all be in Kamloops this weekend and will each play four games.