

Oliver Chronicle
May 5 Pg. 2

OK College: Free lectures and a film

Okanagan College, Pentiction campus is offering two interesting lectures and a fascinating film in their latest speakers series. They are free and open to the public. For more information contact the college at 492-4305. Events will take place at the Lecture Theatre, Pentiction campus at 7:00 p.m.

ment in your community. Get involved. Make a difference!

Monday, March 10

"First Time Buyers Mortgage 101," by Tami O'Callaghan.

Can you imagine owning a home? Do you think it is out of reach in today's hot housing market? Tami O'Callaghan, a local mortgage consultant, will take you on a tour of the options available to homebuyers that can enable you to get into the market and begin investing in your future.

Monday, March 31

Film: "Letters From Iwo Jima"

The island of Iwo Jima stands between the American military force and the home island of Japan. The Imperial Japanese Army is desperate to prevent it from falling into American hands and providing a launching point for an invasion of Japan. When the American attack begins, members of the Japanese army find strength, honour, courage, and horrors beyond imagination. Directed by Clint Eastwood and nominated for several Academy Awards, Letters From Iwo Jima tells the story of the battle between the United States and Imperial Japan during World War II, as told from the perspective of the Japanese who fought it.

Monday, March 17

"People Who Care - An Environmental Expo"

Ever wondered how you can make a difference? Several local organizations, projects, and groups will be on hand to discuss current activities you can get involved in to help preserve the environ-

-Contributed