

Scott in action at Scotties

Kelowna's Kelly Scott will meet Saskatchewan and Nova Scotia today at the Scotties Tournament of Hearts national women's curling championship in Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

In action from Tuesday morning, Scott pushed her record to 4-2 with a 7-5 win over Jill Thurston of Manitoba.

A score from Tuesday afternoon's game between Scott and Jennifer Jones of Team Canada wasn't available at press time.

For up-to-date scores on the Canadian championship, visit seasonofchampions.ca

The playoffs begin Friday, with the final set for Sunday at 11:30 a.m.

Scott won both the 2006 and 2007 Canadian women's championships.

B.C. MEN'S CURLING

Action continues today with the fifth draw of the B.C. men's curling championship in Vernon.

Three Kelowna rinks are competing in the 10-rink field—Bob Ursel, Bert Gretzinger and Jeff Richard.

Today, Ursel will take on Steve Waatainen of Nanaimo, Gretzinger will meet Royal City's Jay Wakefield, and Richard plays Fred Thomson.

The Page playoff system will be used with the final to be played Sunday at 10 a.m.

For up-to-date scores, visit www.playdowns.com.