OC hosts top baseball team

Okanagan College will face its toughest test of the Canadian College Baseball Conference season this weekend as it hosts the Prairie Baseball Academy Dawgs in a four game set at Elks Stadium in Kelowna.

The Lethbridge-based Prairie Baseball Academy is in first place overall and in the CCBC's Chris Reitsma division with an impressive 20-4 record.

OC meanwhile is in first place in the Larry Walker division with an 11-11 record.

It's the final weekend of the CCBC regular season and a berth in the 2009 CCBC championships is on the line.

OC is coming off of a split of two games with Kwantlen College on Wednesday.

Rob Alksne earned the win in an 8-2 victory for OC as they scored five runs in the seventh inning to win the first game.

In the nightcap Kwantlen scored early and often and won 8-3.

This weekend's games are important for OC as they look to advance to the CCBC championships in Lethbridge which begin next Thursday.

The top two teams in each of the CCBC's divisions will advance. OC currently leads Vancouver Island and Kwantlen but needs at least one win or losses by the other two teams to advance to the championships.

OC and Prairie Baseball play a double-header on Saturday starting at 1 p.m. and on Sunday beginning at 11 a.m. at Elks.
