Connecting you to your future employees

The Okanagan School of Business and the Student, Graduate and Co-op Employment Centre is excited to be hosting our 15th Annual Business Expo and Employment Fair on Feb. 1, 2023 at our Okanagan College KLO Kelowna Campus. This popular event connects you and your business with the College's skilled students, both soon-to-be graduates and students with a year or more left of studies. The Business Expo & Employment Fair is also an opportunity for students to meet you and learn about your business, educating them on future career paths and potentially directing the focus of their academic studies as they finish their program.

Who comes to the Business Expo & Employment Fair?

For fifteen years the Business Expo has drawn many of the region's established and new start-up business. If you're looking for an opportunity to showcase your business and make meaningful connections with the next generation of professionals, this fair is for you. You will meet qualified students from a wide array of programs including:

- Business
- Engineering Technologies
- Health
- Trades and Apprenticeship
- Computer Information Systems
- Office Administration
- Arts & Science

Click here for detailed information about these programs.

Promotional campaign includes:

- Direct promotional emails to Okanagan College students
- Advertisement through Okanagan College's and Okanagan School of Business' social media platforms and webpages
- Advertisement to all Okanagan College campuses
- Advertisement in local print media
